1.3.12

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, January 10, 2005, Tape 88_1 St. John's 11:14 a.m.

www.unc.bz

1. “Daddy, will you tell me that story again?
Will you tell me that story again, please?
What did the angel say to you?
What was that dream?
Tell me your dream again.
Those dreams, Daddy, what was it like that night?
Tell me again about the night I was born.
What was it like when the wise men came?
What did you think when the wise men came and what did you think when they gave you the gifts? How did you deal with it? What went through your mind?
Dad, what was this like?
2. “Mom, how did you feel when you were carrying me, when I was in your womb?
Tell me about that angel again. Help me know these scriptures. Help me know these scriptures. Show me again these scriptures. Show me again the scriptures that you poured over, show me again the scriptures please.
3. “ ‘How can this be? How can this be that I know not a man?’ You said, you said, you asked, you spoke.
4. “You weren't afraid?
5. ‘I was very afraid but I spoke.’
6. Tell me these stories. Tell me every detail, don't leave out a thing.
7. “How was it when we went to Egypt?
What was it like there?
Was I like every other baby?”
8. I love you and I give you Me and I give you so many of My words that now come forth. Words that I thought, words that I spoke, words that were in My heart, words that are in My heart, words that I want to be in the heart of all of My children, seeking the words and thoughts of My heart about them; yea, foretold, foreknown.
9. Yea, I love you. I love you and I give you Me and I give My words, I give you My heart, and I give you strength and grace.
10. “Tell me the story again, tell me the story again, Daddy, come sit beside me.
Daddy, tell me the story again, tell me the story.
Tell me the stories, Lord. Tell me the stories your Daddy told you. Tell me.
I thirst, I want to know, I want to know all about me, tell me.”

11. Think it not strange what I give you, what I share, what I reveal. Allow Me to come in My fullness; yea nothing on Me, all together new, all together lovely, all revealed. I love you. The fullness of fullness, the fullness of joy, the joy of fullness, My Godhead replete and My creation, yea, knowing, knowing, knowing Me in such love, such tenderness, such one-ship, such intimacy; yea, deep respect, kindness, joy and laughter, never thinking of rankling My ire or raising their head above Mine.

12. I am Me and I am altogether lovely. I am the loveliness of the morning star, My morning star that I placed in you before the foundation of the world and that I placed in My creation, the work of My hands, My people, My who love Me of every race, nation, tribe and tongue; yea, labels, without labels, of no label, of every label: I give you Me and I come forth in thought, word and deed never imagined.

13. And I behold you for you behold Me and you are not afraid of Me, you seek Me and you embrace Me and you embrace My truth, you embrace My fullness, and you walk unashamed, unafraid. You walk alone and you walk with Me, and you walk with those I bring you and I bring you masters from afar; yea, masters of meekness, masters of surrender, masters of submission to only Me. Freedom makers who I have taught what freedom is and given freedom and operate in freedom now, to freedom makers make all over My globe.

14. Towers of strength, towers of knowledge, wisdom and understanding, convergence of only Me. My towers, My tower makers, My of every vocation, color, garb, hue. See Me. See Me in them; see My label in them, over them, My seed placed in them long before, before anyone knew I Am.

15. The seed of Christ in Me coming forth, came forth, coming forth now to maturity, in maturity, watch Me. The seed of Christ in My creation, My seed radiant, maturing; yea, unfolding, enfold-ment of only Me, radiance'd by My Father. I love you.

16. I give you Me in seashores many, funds unlimited, fun without restraint, fun with Me in My big adventure, your big adventure now, for you enter into Me in the fullness of My closet not, cloistered not; but, yea, revealed to My world to reveal Me and why I came, who I am and who they are and why they are here, where they are, and what they can do/be, within Me, altogether oneness, Godhead of Me. I love you.

17. Think it not strange the council of the inquiries, the condemning criticism; but yea, they spat upon Me, reviled Me, mocked Me, scourged Me and, yea, they will you, they would you, many will seek to.

18. But many will bow to the freedom that I hold out to them as I bow My knee before them and present them Me on My platter. Yea, them eating Me, eating truth, and knowing I am Me; that they are Me, and ‘all that I have is thine:’ theirs. And that they are Me, they are My body, My blood, and now My blood and My body shed to each other in the fullness of joy and laughter and creating creation of only Me. I love you.